

Yesterday in the Signal Corps

Yesterday in the Signal Corps Yesterday in the Signal Corps Yesterday in the Signal Corps Yesterday in the Signal Corps Yesterday in the Signal Corps

Camp Meade, Pennsylvania, 1898: Telephone was first used in military operations during the Spanish-American War. This is the Signal Corps telephone and telegraph station at Meade. Note the Bell symbols on the tent at the right. (US Army photo)