

Yesterday in the Signal Corps

Yesterday in the Signal Corps Yesterday in the Signal Corps Yesterday in the Signal Corps Yesterday in the Signal Corps Yesterday in the Signal Corps

Long Island City, New York, 1955: Capt. John L. Fuller, Platoon Tactics, CMTE, Fort Benning, Ga., technical advisor briefs a patrol on camouflage and individual concealment before shooting a night patrol scene at the Signal Corps Photographic Center. The enlisted men, attached to the 29th Infantry Regiment at Fort Benning, are Cpl. Leroy Evans (standing), Cpl. Homer T. Waters, SFC Jerry L. Jarman and PFC Franklin Jackson. (US Army photo)