

REPLY TO ATTENTION OF:

DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY
15TH REGIMENTAL SIGNAL BRIGADE
606 BARNES AVE
FORT GORDON, GEORGIA 30905-5729

ATZH-TB

11 December 2012

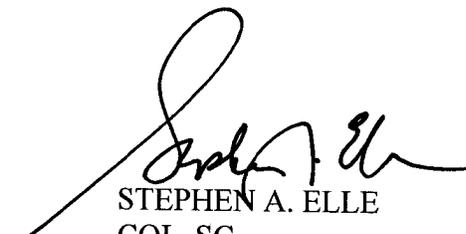

MEMORANDUM FOR Families of Advanced Individual Training (AIT) Soldiers, 15th
Regimental Signal Brigade

SUBJECT: Holiday Greetings

1. Welcome to the 15th Regimental Signal Brigade, Fort Gordon, Georgia and the Central Savannah River Area (CSRA). Your Soldier is no doubt anxious to reunite with you in anticipation of the Holiday Season. They have spent countless hours learning and perfecting their craft as American Soldiers and Signal & Ordnance Warriors. However, now is a time for both the trainees and trainers to relax and spend time with family and friends this Holiday Season.
2. Holiday Block Leave (HBL) begins 20 December 2012 and continues through 03 January 2013. This means your Soldier has been authorized to leave Fort Gordon on 20 December 2012 and must return on 03 January 2013. If a Soldier discovers they may be late in returning from HBL, they must contact their company chain of command immediately, using their contact list phone card. Their Company Commander is the only individual who can authorize them to return late.
3. We wish everyone a safe and enjoyable HBL. Our goal is to have the safe return of all Soldiers leaving out Brigade during this Holiday Season. We cannot accomplish this without the help of families and friends. Soldiers are reminded to stay safe and make wise decisions during their HBL.
4. To learn more about the 15th Regimental Signal Brigade, Fort Gordon, and the local community, you can visit the following sites: <http://www.gordon.army.mil> or <http://www.signal.army.mil/sigbde15>. Once again, we hope you and your family have a safe and enjoyable Holiday Season.

Voice of Victory!

VALERIE F. GREENE
CSM, USA
Brigade Command Sergeant Major

STEPHEN A. ELLE
COL, SC
Commanding